

Please do not revoke the New Jersey Do not call list. Since I signed up last year, the amount of unsolicited calls has dropped by almost 100%. It has been a God send. I had previously received calls every day at all times. Being rfetired, I am home a lot which made it worse for me. Reached the point I would not answer my phone unless I knew the caller.